

Program is Sponsored by the NSF's NOIRLab

TEEN ASTRONOMY CAFÉ PROGRAM

▲ HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS ▲

Explore the birth and death of stars, KILLER ASTEROIDS, the STRUCTURE OF THE UNIVERSE, exoplanets and GRAVITATIONAL LENSING, dark matter, COLLIDING GALAXIES & more!

Finding the Ingredients of Other Worlds: How Spectra Tell Us what Extrasolar Planets are Made of

Meet with astronomers over coffee and food •
Try computer programs astronomers use •
Hear the latest news • Work with actual data

February 1
2020

with
Dr. Everett Schlawin

First Saturday of every month

October through December &
February through May 9:30am - 12pm

The program is free. Please sign up for the Teen Astronomy Cafe Program to reserve your spot. Sign-up at: www.teenastronomycafe.org

NSF's National Optical-Infrared
Astronomy Research Laboratory
950 N Cherry Ave, Tucson, AZ | Room 27

Director: Connie Walker cwalker@noao.edu